Ain't Misbehavin'

Presented by Arizona Theatre Company

Friday, January 15, 2010

8:00 PM

Herberger Theater Center

Bright lights. Glamorous gowns. And finger-snapping, toe-tappin' music. The joint is jumpin' and we're taking misbehavin' to a whole new level! Travel back to Harlem's sassy, swinging '30s with this riveting, Tony Award-winning musical –exuberantly performed by a quintet of irresistible talents. Spend a joyous evening partying with one of the greatest jazz songwriters of all time, Thomas "Fats" Waller. A composer and pianist with a legendary lust for life, he created jubilant melodies, soulful ballads and gleeful love songs like I'm Gonna Sit Right Down and Write Myself a Letter, Honeysuckle Rose, I Can't Give You Anything but Love and, of course, Ain't Misbehavin'.

This is one show that may just bring the house down! One never knows ... do one?

La Boheme

Presented by Arizona Opera

Friday, January 29, 2010

7:30PM

Symphony Hall

The best-loved opera in the world sweeps its audience away with a timeless tale of young love. The spirit of these 19th-century Bohemians, in the face of poverty and illness, melts the hardest of hearts and leaves all others aching with nostalgia and longing. Puccini's unabashedly romantic score comes to life this winter with the rising star, soprano Ailyn Pérez, as the fragile Mimi.

The Glass Menagerie

Presented by Arizona Theatre Company

Saturday, April 10, 2010

4:00 PM

Herberger Theater Center

In the 1930s in a small tenement apartment in St. Louis, the Wingfield family awaits your visit. The mother, Amanda, lives in an illusion of recapturing her faded Southern Belle glory, her daughter Laura lives in a fantasy world of delicate glass figurines, and her son Tom dreams poetically of a world beyond the back stoop. When Tom brings home a Gentleman Caller to meet his sister, The Glass Menagerie weaves these lives into a heart-stopping dance of hopes pursued and dreams betrayed. Considered by many to be Tennessee Williams' greatest play, The Glass Menagerie is an achingly beautiful story of longing and love that has touched generations of theatergoers with its sparkling, delicate radiance.
